- FRIENDS OF GREYSTONE SPECIAL EVENTS -

(Held periodically throughout the Year.) Check back with us for new Friends of Greystone Special Events as they are announced.

“Franklin & Jefferson” - Sex, Politics and the American Revolution

The Friends and the City of Beverly Hills Community Services Department present this costumed, staged reading, which will be held in the Grand Salon with professional cast. This new work premiered in New York City in 2008. The production not only brings to life memorable events of the 12 years from the appointment of George Washington as commander-in-chief to Franklin’s return from France, but also Jefferson’s & Franklin’s embarrassments, disappointments, intrigues and yes, among other things, women. Our January performance was sold out and we have added four new dates.

DATES: Saturday Matinees - March 28 and April 18 at 1:30

Friday Evenings - April 17 and 24 at 6:00pm

A wine and cheese reception follows performances.

TICKETS: $35 Beverly Hills Residents, $45 Non-Residents. Advance registration is required as space is limited. Tickets must be purchased through the Friends of Greystone. For information on how to register and reserve seats please call 310-285-6830. All proceeds of this event go to Greystone restoration and preservation.

Enjoy a lovely "afternoon tea" on the terrace with an unbelievable panoramic view of the City. Teas on the terrace are served at four o'clock, and traditionally include pots of tea, small sandwiches, scones, cakes and other pastries. As in the elegant nineteenth century, our afternoon teas are served using fine china and linens on the overlook terrace. Musical entertainment and a tour of the first floor of the Mansion are included. Space is very limited, therefore advance registration is a must! Teas are limited to 10 tickets per person (1 full table).
